

Read the "Fifty Years Ago" Column Daily.

70TH YEAR.

VOLUME 70.
NUMBER 210

BOLSHEVISTS MAKE DESPERATE STAND TO HOLD GRODNO

Reds Massing All Available Troops and Another Great Battle Impends.

SACRIFICING THREASURES TO RETAKE BREST-LITOVSK

80,000 Reds Have Been Captured, 40,000 Killed and 75,000 Are Fugitives in Prussia.

TROTSKY COMMANDS ARMY

Takes Place of Tuchatschewski, Degraded Because He Failed to Capture Warsaw.

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, August 27.—The Bolsheviks are making a desperate stand at Grodno, according to a statement of the Foreign Ministry here today.

The statement added that all available Bolshevik troops are being concentrated at Grodno and a great battle is expected shortly, extending from that place to Brest-Litovsk.

The fighting at Brest-Litovsk is of the fiercest character, and in the Lublin sector a violent battle is continuing with fluctuating results.

The Bolsheviks are sacrificing many thousands of men in the effort to regain possession of the forts of Brest-Litovsk.

Eighty thousand Russian Soviet soldiers have been captured in Poland, 40,000 killed and 75,000 are fugitives in East Prussia, according to the latest reports from Warsaw.

Russians in Germany Fight Poles.

A dispatch from Warsaw charges that the Soviet troops who took refuge in Prussia are fighting the Poles along the frontier.

Soviet batteries have been sent into Prussia by the retreating Russians, and are being used against the Poles, and the Soviet forces are also employing machine guns in this sector.

Nevertheless, Polish troops on the Russian Prussian frontier have been cautious not to fire upon German territory.

The Poles continued their advance Thursday and reached the region of Koblenz, approximately twenty-eight miles northeast of Brest-Litovsk, where, in a surprise attack they took 1,100 prisoners, four guns and the entire staff of the Fifth-seventh Soviet Division.

The region west of the Minsk-Grodno railway is gradually being cleared of Russians, of whom more than 3,000 have been captured. All were remnants of the various detachments which participated in the drive designed to completely encircle or capture Warsaw.

Trotsky Commands Red Army.

General Tuchatschewski, known as the "Soviet Napoleon," has been relieved of his post as commander-in-chief of the Bolshevik army on the Polish front because of his failure to take Warsaw.

Leon Trotsky, Bolshevik Minister of War and Marine, has personally taken command of the army, according to Bolshevik prisoners.

Trotsky, who has had a remarkable career in the Russian army. He is of noble birth and was captured by the Germans. Later he escaped and resumed his place in the army, rising to the rank of lieutenant. When the Soviet government was established he was promoted and rose to high command, being credited with the defeat of Admiral Kolchak, in Siberia, and General Denikin, in Southern Russia. He is only 28 years old.

Experts Decried Mass Maneuver.

PARIS, August 27.—The Poles continue to advance along the East Prussian frontier, notwithstanding all their efforts. The Red command has failed to instill in the Bolshevik troops enough courage or energy to resist the Poles, who after a few hours of almost desultory fighting took possession of the Ostrovetz fort, opened a passage across the Tabor marshes and reached the Augustow, lakes, east of the East Prussian frontier, thus gaining command of the whole of the southern side of that frontier as far as Augustow.

The Reds, driven back on the line of Augustow-Grodno, are in a good defensive position, on account of the forests and marshes which cover it.

The military observers here assert that it is hard to see with what success the Soviets could be formed for the threatened mass maneuvers, as the Bolsheviks at present have available only 30,000 to 40,000 men, who escaped from the battle of Warsaw, and little can be expected from the interior of Russia, where mutinies are reported among troops ordered to the front.

"Forward" France's Advice to Poland.

PARIS, August 27.—France has advised Poland to press forward as far as possible as the position of her armies will be a determining factor when the peace treaty is being considered. Poland, however, should withdraw her armies within the Polish frontier upon the signing of peace, the Foreign Office says.

Bolsheviks Recapture Rostk.

LONDON, August 27.—Rostk was recaptured when heavy Bolshevik reinforcements which had landed at

A Careful Check

of the results obtained from Times' Polls, August 27.—Franklin D. Roosevelt will convince even the most skeptical of their tremendous pulling power. Phone your Want Ad to Randolph 1.—Adv.

Bootleggers Not Helping Cox.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., August 27.—There is no collusion between prohibition officers of Western Pennsylvania and bootleggers to permit the sale of liquor for the purpose of boosting the campaign fund of Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, said W. H. Hundman, prohibition director for Pennsylvania, commenting tonight on the statement made yesterday by E. H. Huston,

Bootleggers Not Helping Cox.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., August 27.—There is no collusion between prohibition officers of Western Pennsylvania and bootleggers to permit the sale of liquor for the purpose of boosting the campaign fund of Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, said W. H. Hundman, prohibition director for Pennsylvania, commenting tonight on the statement made yesterday by E. H. Huston,

(Continued on Second Page.)

Richmond Times-Dispatch

RICHMOND, VA., SATURDAY, AUGUST 28, 1920. —EIGHT PAGES

WEATHER PAGE 4. —CLOUDY

PRICE, THREE CENTS

BEGIN SWEEPING PROBE INTO COAL PRICES IN VIRGINIA

Agents of Department of Justice Operate in Eastern District.

HAMPTON ROADS WILL BE GIVEN SPECIAL ATTENTION

District Attorney Hiram M. Smith Is to Direct Investigation of Fuel Costs.

Sweeping investigation into coal charges and methods of handling was begun in the Eastern District of Virginia yesterday morning. Special investigators detailed from the Federal Department of Justice are working out of the office of District Attorney Hiram M. Smith, at Richmond.

While all phases of coal dealings in all sections of the district will undergo a systematic probe, activities of the dealers will be concentrated for the present at Hampton Roads, where it has been charged that unreasonable prices have been charged for coal.

Representatives of coal interests gathered around Hampton Roads have been called into conference and District Attorney Smith spent a large part of yesterday making preliminary inquiry into conditions and alleged overcharges.

Special investigators are in the field and are busy gathering data. It has been reported that as much as $22 a ton has been charged for emergency coal for bunkering at Norfolk. Many complaints of excessive charges for coal at Hampton Roads have been received by the district attorney's office from shipping interests.

It is said that serious inquiry is being done the port as well as the State of Virginia through the unfair methods and charges of some dealers.

While prices and methods of handling coal in Richmond will be investigated, it is said that prices charged here are not considered excessive when compared with prices charged at other places and especially at the Virginia ports.

The district attorney's office has been provided with official reports of the Federal Trade Commission. Federal officials here are of the opinion that the price of $19 and $21 a ton is not entirely justified, but no official word on record as authorizing such a statement in advance of a full investigation of facts and conditions.

Part of Nation-Wide Probe. The investigation being made in the Eastern District is part of the nationwide investigation ordered a few days ago by the Federal Department of Justice. It is declared, however, that the investigation is largely based on complaints coming to the department from alleged abuses at Hampton Roads in this district.

For this reason activities of the Richmond office are considered of special importance and results will be watched with interest.

It is said that the office of the district attorney has information that a number of persons have been charged for tampering with coal for bunkering at Norfolk by brokers who take advantage of ships, partially loaded, and whose charterers are compelled to buy coal at any price offered or pay several thousand dollars a day for storage.

It is cheaper to buy coal here at $15 and $20 and get the ships out to sea than to pay the demurrage interest, which is supposed to supply ships with full quotas of coal, manipulating the market.

Three Tankers Will Be Built at Newport News. Shipping Board orders construction of six vessels under construction at Newport News.

Three Tankers Will Be Built at Newport News

WASHINGTON, August 27.—Applications were approved today by the Shipping Board for construction of six vessels aggregating 295,740 dead-weight tons under the provision of the merchant marine act which permits shipbuilders to build vessels to avoid payment of excess profits taxes for ten years provided a sum equivalent to the tax is set aside yearly towards the building of new ships.

Fourteen of the vessels are tankers ordered by the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, of which three totaling 45,200 tons are to be built at Newport News, Va., three totaling 35,900 tons at Vancouver, Washington, and one of 11,900 tons at Oakland, California.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company applied for one 9,800-ton tanker to be built at New York, and the Sun Company of Philadelphia, for a 12,500-ton oil steamer for construction at Chester, Pa.

Cat Hikes 67 Miles to Be With Master Again

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., August 27.—Red, a Birmingham champion feline pedestrian, today curled up on a log of hewn and purred contentedly in the arms of his owner, who is proprietor of a feed store, patiently applied something new to his paws. Red's claws were worn down to the quick by a hike of sixty-seven miles from a farm which Mr. Blum sold a year ago.

Thinking his pet would prefer fields to those of the feed store variety, Mr. Blum left Red on the farm, but yesterday the ex-hunted feline succeeded in finding the new home of his master.

Will Sell Her Automobile to Help Swell "Charlie's" Assets.

PONZI'S WIFE, ONCE COURTED FOR FAVOR, WILL HAVE TO WORK

IF MACSWEENEY DIES DE VALERA SAYS HE WILL GO BACK HOME

Plans to Follow Example of Dying Lord Mayor of Cork.

Polish Peace Terms Are Short and to the Point

Warsaw, August 27.—The president of the Polish delegation at Minsk on August 19 laid down the following as Poland's principal conditions for peace:

"The political and economic integrity and complete sovereignty and independence of Poland within her frontiers as of January 1, 1918, are the basis of our peace proposals. We guarantee that Russia will not interfere with the internal questions of Poland."

Premier Witos has notified the Russian Soviet government by wireless that the Polish delegation has decided no change in the conditions of the government of Poland. The premier added that instructions to the Polish peace delegation at Minsk have not been changed, and that the Poles desire only an honorable peace.

Armed Thugs Get $10,000. NEW YORK, August 27.—Two armed thugs today held up a paymaster of the American Machinery and Contracting Company in a building under construction in Brooklyn, escaping with cash estimated at $10,000.

Yielding for the privilege of being the first to vote, groups of women gathered in front of polling places long before the polls opened at 6 o'clock in the morning in the special election on a proposal to issue $50,000 in bonds for improvement of the water supply.

Women Register in Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., August 27.—Sixty-seven women registered as voters here today when the registration books for the first time were opened to them. Most of those registering were well-known leaders in the suffrage movement.

New Freight Rates Boost Price of Clothing Only 3.6 Mills Per Pound

(By Associated Press.)

ROANOKE, Va., August 27.—In an official bulletin issued by the Norfolk and Western Railway here today, a summary of actual freight rate increases from Northern and Eastern cities to points on the road are given as a result of the recent rate advances authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

According to the bulletin the increased freight on clothing from New York to Roanoke is 3.6 mills per pound, so that "an a suit of clothes weighing five pounds the increase is five times 3.6 mills, or less than 2 cents."

VANDERBILT BEQUEATHS $250,000 TO UNIVERSITY

Will Provide Large Sum for School in Nashville Named for Him.

SONS GET $2,500,000 EACH

Marquis of Blandford, Lord Ivor Churchill and William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Grandsons, Receive $1,000,000 by Terms of Paper.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, August 27.—Under the provisions of the will of William K. Vanderbilt, the Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn., receives $250,000, it became known here tonight when a summary of the will was made public.

The Marquis of Blandford and Lord Ivor Churchill have been left $1,000,000 each. Both are sons of the Duke of Marlborough, formerly consul-general to the United States.

To carry out a provision of the settlement made on the marriage of the Duchess of Marlborough, he left to the trustees the settlement of $2,500,000 with interest at 4 per cent. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and Harold S. Vanderbilt, sons, were left $2,500,000 each in cash or securities and to them as trustees for William K. Vanderbilt, III, his grandson, he left another $1,000,000.

Margaret Rutherford Mills and Barbara Rutherford Hatch, daughters, received $500,000 each. A desire that his famous racing stable be disbanded at his death was expressed by Mr. Vanderbilt in his will. He directed that his executors sell the celebrated string of racers and racing equipment "wherever found in France, as soon as convenient and possible," and the proceeds of this sale to be turned over to his two sons, William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and Harold S. Vanderbilt.

Slater Appeals to Colby. ASHVILLE, N. C., August 27.—Secretary Colby has been asked to act in behalf of Terence MacSweeney, Lord Mayor of Cork, and endeavor to obtain his release from prison, where he is on a hunger strike. His sister, Rev. Madam MacSweeney, principal of the collegiate department of a college here, yesterday sent a telegram asking him to use his office in seeking the release of her brother.

No direct reply has been received from the secretary.

Prayers at Dublin. DUBLIN, August 27.—A large congregation gathered at the cathedral here this morning for a special mass of intercession celebrated in behalf of Lord Mayor MacSweeney, of Cork. The Lord Mayor of Dublin and the members of the city corporation attended. Several hundred dock workers, suspended labor, marched to the cathedral to participate in the services.

Fights in Rebel Cork. CORK, August 27.—A fierce, though brief battle was fought early this morning at Clonakilly, southwest of Cork, when fifty men attacked a small garrison in the police barracks. The attackers poured a heavy fire into the building and one bomb was thrown. The police were victorious.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

It was all in the nature of a surprise attack, but persuasion was not necessary to lure the men away from work as the growing parade flowed to the police station. The longshoremen knew nothing of what had been going on further down the river. With cries of "Get out of there!" and "Let's go!" the strikers would race into the piers, up gangplanks and down into the ships.

ALL BRITISH SHIPS IN NEW YORK TIED UP BY IRISH WOMEN

Organize Strike of Longshoremen and Sailors as MacSweeney Protest.

THOUSANDS JOIN THE IMPROMPTU "WALKOUT"

260 Negroes Unloading Cunarder Quit as Laborers on Other English Vessels Quit.

NEW YORK, August 27.—Eliated by the tie-up of virtually every British ship in New York, 2,600 or more longshoremen who suddenly quit work today, expect to spread their walkout to every port in the United States in the hope of forcing Great Britain to release from jail Terence MacSweeney, the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind campaign to secure the release of the Lord Mayor of Cork, and permit Archbishop Mannix to land on Irish soil. The women pickets who inspired the unexpected walkout of longshoremen, marine firemen, water tenders and others declared the strikers have promised not to go back to work on British ships until Great Britain meets their wishes.

Irish sympathizers working on American, French and Belgian steamships also quit work during the whirlwind